British Army 7s

Men

Team Origin: United Kingdom
Team Bio / Info:

The Army Rugby Union Men’S 7S Team Is Set To Make History In 2026 As They Travel To Fiji For The First Time To Compete In The Prestigious Mcdonald’S Coral Coast Sevens—An Exciting Milestone In The Continued Growth Of The Programme On The International Stage.

Following A Standout 2024 Season—Where The Team Secured Titles In Both The Lit Super Series And British Elite Competitions, They Continued Their Successes In 2025 With A 2Nd Lit Super Series Victory, The Only Team In The Competition History To Win Back To Back Titles, And A Win At The The Bristol 7S.

The Squad Is Led By A Management Team Of Army Dor Lt Col Jon Lord, Head Coach Cpl Joe Nayacavou, Team Manager Wo2 Vasa Bai And S&C Samu Matakibau. Their Experience Of The Game Brings Invaluable Insight And Leadership To The Team.

The Coral Coast 7S 2026 Marks A Significant Moment For Army Rugby, As It Will Be The First Time The Men’S 7S Side Competes On Fijian Soil—An Opportunity To Test Themselves Against Some Of The Finest 7S Talent In The World.

Army Players Continue To Balance Full-Time Military Service With Elite-Level Sport, Embodying The Discipline, Resilience And Pride That Define Both Soldiering And Rugby. The Coral Coast 7S Will See The Red Shirt Worn With Honour, As The Team Competes With Passion, Physicality And The Unique Spirit Of Army Rugby.

With Pride In Their Service And Purpose In Their Play, The Army Rugby Union Men’S 7S Team Is Ready To Embrace The Challenge Of Fiji And Represent The British Army On One Of The Sport’S Most Iconic Stages."
